Bus Rules

Child's Name _____

Rocking Horse Academy transports children in the afternoon from local elementary schools. In addition, we take school-aged children on field trips during summer camp and school breaks. Safety is vital. It is essential that you as parents discuss these safety rules with your child, and that you remind them regularly about following those rules.

Seatbelts MUST be worn appropriately at all times.

Stay in your seat at all times.

No yelling or loud talking.

Keep your hands and feet to yourself.

Respect others at all times—students and teachers.

Keep center aisle clear of all objects. (backpacks and feet)

No food or drinks on the bus. (other than water)

Backpacks/lunch boxes are to remain closed for the duration of the trip.

Do not take things out of the backpacks or lunch boxes.

Damage to school property including the bus will be charged to the parent(s).

I have read and discussed these rules with my child, and we understand and agree to abide by these rules.
